CRUISE SHIP FROM FLORIDA TO BAPTIST WORLD ALLIANCE

If you are one of those Baptists who have longed to attend the sessions of the Baptist World Alliance, this is the time to start planning for just that on the special cruise-tour that has been arranged leaving Jacksonville on July 2, 1955.

The entire accommodations on the S. S. Silverstar, luxury cruise ship, are being made available to Baptists from throughout the Southeast for those wishing to visit London during the Golden Jubilee Congress of the Baptist World Alliance. The steamship will sail direct from Jacksonville, Florida, with a full-day stop-over in Bermuda where an enjoyable tour is included.

Seven days are allowed in London during meetings, with attractive program of sightseeing included seeing the most interesting points of interest in and around the British capital. From London optional tours are offered with a choice of remaining aboard the cruise-ship for visits to the Scandinavian capitals Oslo, Copenhagen and Stockholm, plus several days in and around Hamburg, Germany. Those desiring may select to tour the continent, visiting besides London, Holland, Belgium, Switzerland, Italy, Germany and France, while still another choice is offered those wishing to fly from London to the Holy Land, returning via Rome, Nice and Paris, before reboarding the steamer in La Havre for the return voyage to Jacksonville.

All features of this special sailing of the S. S. Silverstar have been completed by the operators, Roy Brown Tours of St. Petersburg, Florida and already a number of advanced reservations have been received. A number of pastors and church leaders have registered for the trip and it is understood that others may join the Baptists on the tour. Complete details of the trip may be secured from your local pastor or from Rev. Vaughn M. Johnson, Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, St. Petersburg, Florida, chairman of the transportation committee in charge of this cruise.

Belle Glade Loses To L. W. Trojans

By BILL NICHOLSON
The Trojans of Lake Worth found the going easy last Friday night at Russ Bullard Field in Lake Worth as they humbled the Rams of Belle Glade by the score of 19-0.

The Rams could never get a scoring threat to materialize. They fumbled on six occasions, losing the ball five times to the alert Trojans. Belle Glade tried eleven passes, completing only three. The Rams' total pushing yardage for the evening was 112 yards, as compared to the winner's 220.

The first quarter was scoreless; however midway in the second quarter Lake Worth began to roll. The Trojans scored in eight ground plays with Joe Hodgson eliminating the drive by taking a pitchout around the right side for five yards and the touchdown. With four minutes remaining in the first half, the Trojans marched sixty-five yards to score their second touchdown.

Late in the fourth period the Trojans traveled sixty-three yards in seven plays with Jerry Lisle going over right guard to end the scoring.

Belle Glade's most impressive run was in the third quarter when Walter Mosley took a Trojan punt on the Rams' 15. Walt faked a hand-off to Marvin Bergman, picked up his blockers and was finally stopped on the Lake Worth 40. A hurdling penalty moved the ball back to the Rams' 48. On the next play they lost possession of the ball by way of a fumble.

Offensively the Rams thus far in the season have made an unimpressive showing. On the other hand they are rated high in conference standing as displaying a very alert and aggressive type of defensive play.

Belle Glade's Rams have displayed unusual sportsmanlike qualities while on the field this season. The fans who support the team have also shown that they possess wholesome attitudes, by accepting the decisions of the officials and extending courtesies to the opposing teams. These facts will show that Belle Glade is definitely in the running for the Suncoast Conference Sportsmanship Trophy.

New Equipment At Glades Shoe Shop

Use of a new method in shoe repairing eliminates the use of hard nails and thereby scratching of polished floors and linoleum has been stopped, according to Mr. W. H. Jenkins, Glades

Shoe Shop, 225 Avenue A, Belle Glade, Florida.

The Auto-Soler method of shoe repairing," says Mr. Jenkins "is a great advance in many ways. The old slow hammer and nails method of putting on heels is a thing of the past with us. We simply slip the shoe under the Auto-Soler and press a pedal.

The Auto-Soler uses soft wire from a reel that is heavily knurled so it grips the leather. The machines cuts off a fastener to the correct length and squeezes it into the shoe, much faster than I can tell about it. This wire fastener wears down as the leather wears, so that no sharp nail end ever sticks out to dig holes or to scratch floors." The Auto-Soler machine has changed more than just the quality and speed in the Glade Shoe Shop. It has changed the physical appearance of the shop itself. To those accustomed to the picture of a shoe repairer with a mouth full of nails, driving each nail painfully with a hammer, the sight of the lightening operation of the Auto-Soler is a revolution.

We Plow Our Profits Back Into the South

Operating exclusively in the states of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky and Mississippi, and with all of our properties and two-thirds of our stockholders in these five states, we are truly a Southern Institution.

And, we spend our money where we make it — in the South.

During 1953, the Company's expenditures for the southern states, for additional real estate, buildings and facilities... enlargement, repair and maintenance of present plants and equipment... and all expenses of operation, including payrolls, licenses and taxes (excluding income taxes) — amounted to $36,000,000.00.

For the same year, two-thirds of the Company's dividends were paid to its approximately 14,000 stockholders in the five southern states — Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky and Mississippi — which it serves.

We have hitched our wagon to a star — the ever increasing growth of the South. Our future is the future of the South. We never lose sight of this fact in making plans and expenditures.

Unless the public can be aroused and made to understand the situation, we stand to lose a valuable and irreplaceable heritage in the form of a natural treasure house that it took Nature centuries to create.

In the Big Cypress country of the Everglades in the northern section of Collier County, the largest stand of primeval cypress swamps in the world exists. These giant untouched bald cypress trees measure six feet or more in diameter and represent the last of God's great forest cathedrals.

They occupy an area known as Corkscrew Swamp, so dense and impenetrable that the feet of only a few white men have ever trod its dank pastures. Here are found countless varieties of waterfowl, rare and unidentified plants, orchids and floral growth, wild life in abundance and perhaps herbs and growth that would provide medical science with answers they desperately seek.

Conservationists have watched with alarm the cruel march of civilization that, if not halted soon, will mean the eventual destruction of this last natural frontier. A small group of the far-seeing individuals gathered in Tampa early this year to see if there was not some way this heritage might be saved.

Officials of the Le Tidewater Cypress Company, owners of the property, were contacted. Asking them to discontinue operations in the richest area of their domain was like asking a mining company to cease working in the richest gold vein ever uncovered. But to their everlasting credit, they agreed to turn over to a responsible group, such as the National Audubon Society, in an out-of-the-way area, 640 acres, provided public interest could be aroused to a point where funds would be provided to purchase surrounding area sufficient to make a permanent public preserve and preserve. The Collier Corporation, owners of considerable acreage leading to the swamp, offered to make the gift and assist in creating such a preserve.

Three hundred thousand dollars will achieve preservation and access to a preserve six square miles in area. Through an appeal to the Florida Association of Garden Clubs and conservation-minded individuals, Audubon Societies and other organizations, approximately half of this amount has already been raised.

It is inconceivable that Floridians will let this treasure-house slip from their grasp, for once it is lost it is gone forever. Half of the needed funds have been subscribed; all that is needed now is an additional $145,000, much less than we spend for a military airplane or a few miles of highway.

Faced with a similar situation in California a group of public spirited citizens there raised $250,000 to save the South California Redwood Grove covering much less acreage.

Friends of the project have organized the Corkscrew Cypress Rookery Association and it is this organization that is striving to obtain the necessary funds so that the last of our great bald cypress and the world's largest bird-segret sanctuary may be saved. Naturalists who have partially surveyed the swamp estimate that from 8,000 to 10,000 waterfowl nest there.

Membership has been set at $3.00 annually, contributing $10. Individuals are urged to join and civic clubs or other organizations to acquire their membership with the situation and seek contributions in any amount. Much of the money already raised has come through contributions of from 25¢ to a few dollars by garden club members. All contributions should be made to the National Audubon Society, McAllister Arcade, Miami, for the "Corkscrew Fund" or to the Corkscrew Cypress Rookery Association, P. O. Box 239, Coral Gables, Fla.

An interesting talk and demonstration on home appliances was given by Miss Sara Horton, county home demonstration agent at the meeting of the local organization Thursday afternoon at the Woman's club building.

Present were Mrs. Clara Gledhill, Mrs. Delta Altman, Mrs. Milton Greer, Mrs. Wilbur Scheffer, Mrs. Leah Byrd, Mrs. R. G. Murray, Mrs. W. R. Hooker, Mrs. Eugene Beck, Mrs. Elsie Ellis, Mrs. Fay Chapman, and Mrs. Eugene Ellis.

Word has been received here that Butch Fair, former Belle Glade High School student who was injured in a hunting accident during the Christmas holidays last year has recently been transferred from Jackson Memorial Hospital to the Harry Anna Home at Umatilla.

Butch is very cheerful and his condition seems much improved as he is with other patients of the same age at the home for handicapped children.

Visiting hours on Sunday are from 1:30 p. m. and Butch would like to have any one from this vicinity drop in and see him, or write to him as cards and letters are always welcome.

Hillsboro Pumps To Be Inspected By Corps Districts

The manufacture of pumps for the Hillsboro Canal project station illustrates the adaptability of the nation-wide organization of the Corps of Engineers. Four other district offices of the Corps of Engineers will aid the Jacksonville District in inspection of the pumps and engines which will be installed at pump stations S-6 of the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control Project.

The Nordberg Manufacturing Company of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, holds the half-million dollar contract for manufacture of pumps and engines for the Everglades pump station. Work on the equipment got underway last month.

The Milwaukee District of the Corps of Engineers will perform the required inspection of the pumps at the Nordberg plant. The engines, which are being manufactured in Nordberg's St.

Louis factory, will be inspected by the St. Louis District. The Buffalo, New York District will perform inspection services on the pump propellers at the Baldwinville, New York plant and the Philadelphia District will inspect the reduction gears which are being manufactured at the Philadelphia Gear Works plant.

Using engineer personnel of other Corps of Engineers districts to perform inspection services on the pumps and engines, the Corps many dollars annually on the cost of flood-control construction.

108-Mile, 137,000 Volt Cross-State Electric Transmission Line Completed Bringing Better Service To Everglades

Florida Power & Light Co.'s new 108-mile, 137,000 volt cross-state electric transmission line, which crosses the state at the point just south of Belle Glade and Clewiston, has been completed and will be placed in service later this month, Curtis Chase, FP&L's Glades District manager, announced.

The tremendous growth of the Glades and West coast area, according to Chase, made the line necessary. Every indication is that this area, as well as the West coast, will maintain or increase its present rate of growth and we plan to be ready with a sufficient supply of electricity," said the utility executive.

This line, in fact, will serve as well as would the previous line.

Popularity Contest For Young Tots At Annual PTA Carnival

The South Bay Garden Club is sponsoring a popularity contest among pre-school children as a feature of the annual Halloween Carnival festivities. Children between the ages of six months and three years are eligible to enter according to Mrs. Mary Waters, who is in charge. She states that prizes will be awarded to the most popular boy and to the most popular girl.

Votes will be counted and announced at noon on Saturday, October 30. The contest will close at 3 p. m. which will give contestants who so desire to secure more votes the opportunity to do so before the contest deadline.

struction of a new multi-million dollar power plant, it was pointed out.

Electric service in the Glades area will be considerably improved by the new line since it will relieve the existing lines into the Lake section of responsibility of providing service to the west coast.

The line permits FP&L to draw large blocks of power from either East or West coast, and is designed to strengthen the entire FP&L system network. In fact, the line forms a backbone to tie the system together at a higher voltage than heretofore, it was stated.

The transmission line, which follows a route lying south of State Road 80 at a distance varying from one to four miles, was constructed in two parts—from Clewiston to Ft. Myers, and from Clewiston east to Ranch substitution, which was constructed approximately 10 miles west of West Palm Beach. A second substitution is located near Ft. Myers.

Engineers of FP&L, according to Chase, stated that approximately 1,000 poles have been used to support the lines. If frame or two-pole construction and guying, a method of bracing the poles, was used. There are three main wires and two overhead ground wires, or a total of 540-miles of wire on the project. The line was designed and constructed to withstand winds of hurricane force, reducing considerably the possibility of service outages as result of tropical storms.

There is a substitution at each end of the new line. Ranch substitution at the eastern terminus of the transmission line has been completed, and completion of the Ft. Myers substitution is expected sometime next month. Ranch substitution is located near the intersection of State Roads 7 and 80, about 10 miles west of West Palm Beach. The Ft. Myers substitution is just east of Ft. Myers on the LaBelle highway.

Ranch is the first completely high-voltage switching station on the FP&L line. All equipment is designed for the 138,000 volt line across the Glades.

In fact, the modern and completely automatic equipment at the Ranch substitution will be remotely controlled from the Riviera generating plant. The equipment will protect other lines when a fault occurs by cutting out the faulty or damaged section of a particular line. Auto-transformers, through which power for the cross-state line passes, used are the largest and most modern yet installed on the FP&L system, it was pointed out.

The main source of power for the transmission line will be the Riviera plant, which was recently enlarged to 131,000 kilowatts. In an emergency, however, power from any one of the system's major plants, regardless of location, could be sent across the line as result of FP&L's inter-connected system, Chase pointed out.

The project is a part of FP&L's $332 million ten-year expansion program designed to meet the fast growing electrical needs of areas served by the utility. A total of $38 million is being spent this year alone building.

Baby Found In New B-29

HOUSTON, TEX. — Modern ingenuity has devised a new type baby diaper that looks so much like a B-29 that it has modern mothers' eyes in the air with enthusiasm. The manufacturer has named his creation, the "Dexter Diaper" — but the shape reminds one of a B-29 and the jet speed with which it comes on and off all-age babies, positively has mothers wondering what to do with their spare time.

Just the one-size diaper goes on and off all-age babies, without folding and without soiling hands — they are as neat and easy as training pants and can be used as training pants, bibs, burp-cloths and carrying bags — absorbent enough to keep your baby bone-dry — small enough to carry in your purse. They are so long lasting and so easy to wash and dry, indoors that economy minded mothers find that just 3 dozen ($2.50 per dozen at stores) is all they need for one baby from birth through training period to eliminate most of their diapering worries and all training pants expense.

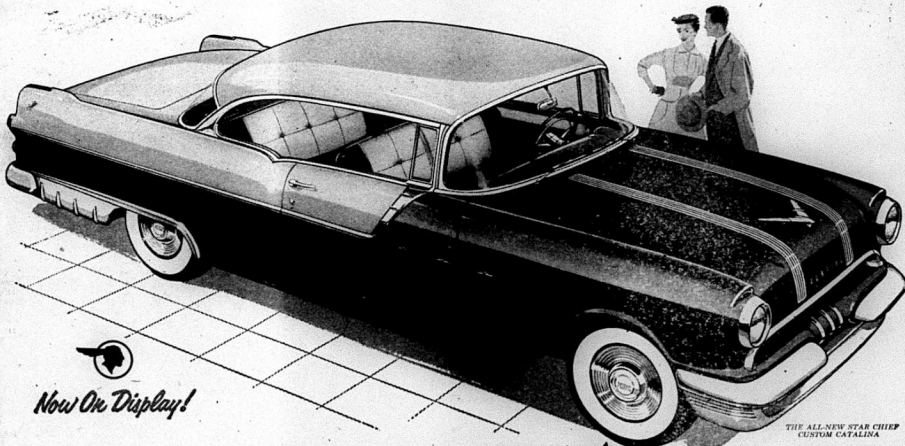

Readers may mail this clipping plus 25c (in coin) direct to the DEXTER DIAPER FACTORY, DEPT. B-29, HOUSTON 8, TEX. As for a sample "Dexter Diaper" postpaid, beautifully packaged as a gift with a handsome set of pins-on-chain for baby and a Doctor Book with 16 modern ways to make diapering easier for mother. Only one gift-pack per clipping, because 25¢ does not fully cover manufacturer's cost.

"DEXTER DIAPERS", packed in dozen lots for $3.50, are available locally at

Deadline Date For Qualifying Is Near

High school seniors and graduates have only until November 20 to apply for the Navy's college training program. It was announced this week. Candidates who apply for the NROTC will take the qualifying mental examination on December 11 as the first step in the competitive cycle leading to an appointment as midshipman. Successful candidates will start their Naval careers in college and universities across the country in 1955, with substantial financial assistance from the government. After normal college education, graduates will be commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps, for active duty with the Fleet throughout the world.

Male citizens of the United States between the ages of 17 and 21 are eligible to apply for the NROTC aptitude test. Persons who obtain a qualifying score will be given the Navy's rigid midshipman physical examination next February. From the pool of qualified candidates remaining in competition, approximately 1,800 young men will be selected for appointment to the NROTC and the college of their choice.

Students enrolled in the Regular NROTC program will spend their summers on training cruises with the Fleet, and will receive $600 annual retainer pay until commissioned. In addition to the normal college curriculum, the midshipmen will study a planned course in Naval science. All tuition, fees, and books will be furnished by the Navy.

Applicants in this area can obtain the necessary forms from the nearest high school or Navy recruiting station, or by writing direct to the Chief of Naval Personnel, Washington 25, D. C., or La Verne your Navy Recruiter at the Draft Board from 9:30 to 1 every Tuesday.
